

Implications of the 2006 curriculum for continuing (“pre-‘06”) students

Old General College Requirements and Perspectives Requirements :	Can be satisfied* with courses taken from existing Basic Skills and Perspectives lists or with certain NEW curriculum courses (if taken in fall 2006 or after):
ENGL 11, 12	ENGL 101, 102
FL through level 3	FL through level 3
2 PHYA courses	Any 2 PHYA courses, one of which may be an LF (#100-199)
MATH 10 + 1 MATH	MATH 110 + any QR course
2 Nat Sci, 1 w/lab	1 PL courses, 1 PX course
2 Social Sciences (from 2 different departments)	2 Non-Historical SS courses (from 2 different departments)
Fine Arts	Any VP course
Literature	Any LA course
Pre-1700 History	Any WB course
Other Western History	Any course approved as HS and NA
Non-Western History	Any course approved as BN or GL
Philosophy	Any PH course
Cultural Diversity	Any US course
Swim Test	Cancelled
Note on COMM 9: Students may use any current CI course, or any course taken before 2006 that has since been classified as CI, to fulfill this requirement. Permission to use a previously taken course to meet an unfulfilled requirement applies only to COMM 9.
* No double-counting of Gen Ed courses; major courses may not count unless specified by the student's major

Old A&S Perspectives Requirements:	Satisfied in NEW curriculum with:
Western History	Any course approved as HS and NA > 199
NWCMP	Any BN or GL > 199 [if "other Western" taken at GC level]
Social Science	Any Non-Historical SS course > 199
Aesthetic	Any VP or LA course > 199
Natural Science/Math	Any QI or PL course > 199*
Philosophy	Any PH course > 199
 No major/minor courses may be used to satisfy perspective requirements
All BA and most BS degrees require students to take a NWCMP at the GC or A&S level.
*If PL, student must choose a Life Science if two Physical sciences were taken at GC level, and vice versa

Other notable adjustments:

- Students may declare up to three “in depth” areas (i. e., two majors and one minor or two minors and one major.)
- Unless otherwise specified, students in the College may use up to 24 hours of professional school credit toward graduation.
- BA students may earn up to 45 hours in their respective majors.
- IDST majors, formerly prohibited from having second majors, will be treated like any other major.
